

JCSA MISSION STATEMENT

JCSA has a core mission of ensuring that homeschool students have opportunities to participate in sports that are recognized as sports by the NCAA. To achieve this, JCSA will provide a Christian environment for young people to learn Christian leadership skills to ensure lifelong success not only in sports but in all areas of their lives. Furthermore, JCSA will provide Christian mentorship, not only to young people but to parents and others as well to help them learn and grow. Through a strong Christian relationship, JCSA will make a lasting impact in people's lives to further the work of building God's kingdom.
